

Partnership Working Policy

At Tuba's Play House, we believe that working in partnership with parents and external agencies is vital in ensuring the well-being, development, and safety of the children in our care. This policy outlines our commitment to working collaboratively with parents and external agencies.

Partnership with Parents:

We recognize that parents are the primary educators and carers for their children. We will work in partnership with parents to ensure that we provide the best possible care and education for their children. We will:

- Respect parents' rights and responsibilities in the care and education of their children
- Communicate regularly with parents to ensure that we are meeting the needs of their children
- Share information about their children's development, interests, and needs
- Involve parents in planning and evaluating their children's learning experiences
- Encourage parents to participate in their children's learning experiences at Tuba's Play House
- Provide information and support to parents on child development, health, and well-being.

Partnership with External Agencies:

We recognize the importance of working collaboratively with external agencies to ensure that we meet the diverse needs of the children in our care. We will:

- Establish effective communication channels with external agencies
- Share information about the children in our care, with consent from parents, to ensure that they receive appropriate support and services
- Work collaboratively with external agencies to develop strategies to support children with additional needs
- Seek advice and guidance from external agencies to improve the quality of our provision

- Participate in training and development opportunities offered by external agencies to enhance our knowledge and skills
- Work within the framework of relevant legislation and guidance when working with external agencies.

External Agencies we liaise with:

At Tuba's Play House, we liaise with the following external agencies:

- Local Authority Early Years Team
- Sutton Children's Services
- Health Visitors and School Nurses
- Speech and Language Therapists
- Educational Psychologists
- Occupational Therapists.

Liaising with External Agencies:

We will liaise with external agencies in the following ways:

- Sharing information about the children in our care with consent from parents
- Attending meetings with external agencies to plan and review support for children with additional needs
- Inviting external agencies to visit Tuba's Play House to observe and provide advice and guidance on our provision
- Participating in training and development opportunities offered by external agencies
- Seeking advice and guidance from external agencies to improve the quality of our provision
- Attending training and networking events run by Local Authority, childminder development Officer, Tania Long

Conclusion:

At Tuba's Play House, we believe that working in partnership with parents and external agencies is essential in providing high-quality care and education for the children in our care. We will continue to develop and strengthen our partnerships with parents and external agencies to ensure that the children in our care receive the best possible start in life.